

Participation Requests Reporting Template 2022/23 for Public Service Authorities

Section 32 of the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 requires public service authorities to produce an annual report on Participation Request activity and publish this no later than 30 June each year. This template has been created to gather participation request data for the period 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023. Information provided will help inform policy and practice at local and national level as the data will be collated and shared by the Scottish Government's Community Empowerment Team. However, it is for each public service authority to make their own annual report publicly available by 30 June each year, whether using this template or not.

Please provide information in the sections below and email the completed template by 30 June 2023 to community.empowerment@gov.scot .

Section Three – Partnership Working & Promotion of Participation Requests

3.1a Please provide details of any engagement with support organisations such as local Third Sector Interfaces and public sector Community Learning and Development staff or national organisations such as the Scottish Community Development Centre.

For example has any new practices to support Participation Requests been developed from working with other bodies, or any learning gained?

The Council's Community Development Team continue to lead the delivery of support to Community Participation Bodies and engage with other Community Learning and Development partners as required.

Between August 2021 and November 2022, a member of Argyll and Bute Council staff was seconded to SCDC. Regular communication and updates were received throughout this time. The Council submitted a response to the Strengthening Participation Requests survey conducted by SCDC to share our experiences as a Public Service Authority.

3.1b Please tell us about any challenges you have had in accessing support.

There have been no challenges in accessing support.

3.2 Please provide details of action taken to promote the use of Participation Requests or support Community Participation Bodies in making a Participation Request.

For example this could include: Support before making a request, such as to determine whether a participation request is the most appropriate route; Support to make the request such as assist groups to complete forms, or identify appropriate outcomes; and/or Support to take part effectively in outcome improvement processes (whether or not they resulted from a formal participation request).

The Council offer support to those interested in submitting a request through Community Development and provide guidance to Community Participation Bodies during the process.

The process and the resources to support communities have been promoted through Argyll and Bute Council's Community Development Bulletin which is

| Participation Requests were included as part of community engagement training for Community Councils delivered between February and March 2023. |
